3. Objectives

This Policy is intended to ensure due and timely identification, approval, disclosure and reporting of transactions between the Company and any of its Related Parties in compliance with the applicable laws and regulations as may be amended from time to time.

The provisions of this Policy are designed to govern the approval process and disclosure requirements to ensure transparency in the conduct of Related Party Transactions in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders and to comply with the statutory provisions in this regard.

4. Rationale of the Policy

- 4.1. The Audit Committee shall review and approve all RPTs based on this Policy.
- 4.2. All proposed RPTs must be reported to the Committee for prior approval by the Committee in accordance with this Policy. In the case of frequent/regular/repetitive transactions which are in the normal course of business of the Company, the Committee may grant standing pre-approval/omnibus approval, details whereof are given in a separate section of this Policy.
- 4.3. In exceptional cases, where a prior approval is not taken due to an inadvertent omission or due to unforeseen circumstances, the Committee may ratify the transactions in accordance with this Policy.

5. Identification of Related Parties & Transactions

- 5.1. Every Director & Key Managerial Personnel will be responsible for providing a declaration in the format as per Annexure 1 (and schedule thereto) on an annual basis.
- 5.2. Every Director and the Key Managerial Personnel will also be responsible to update the Company Secretary of any changes in the above relationships, directorships, holdings, interests and/or controls immediately on him/her becoming aware of such changes.
- 5.3. Every Director, Key Managerial Personnel, members of the Key Management Team (as defined in the Articles of Association), Head of Departments (HODs) and other officers authorized to enter into contracts/ arrangements will be responsible for providing prior Notice to the Company Secretary of any potential Related Party Transaction. They will also be responsible for providing additional information about the transaction that the Board/Committee may request, for being placed before the Committee and the Board in Annexure 2.
- 5.4. Besides the above, the Company will also identify other Related Parties as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

- 5.5. Any transaction by the Company with a Related Party will be regulated as per this Policy.
- 5.6. The Company Secretary shall be responsible to maintain an updated database of information pertaining to Related Parties reflecting details of-
- (i) All Directors and Key Managerial Personnel;
 - (ii) All individuals, partnership firms, Companies and other persons as declared and updated by Directors and Key Managerial Personnel;
 - (iii) Company's holding Company, subsidiary Companies and associate Companies, if any;
 - (iv) Subsidiaries of holding Company, if any;
 - (v) Director or Key Managerial Personnel of the holding Company or their Relatives, if any; and
 - (vi) Any other entity which is a Related Party as defined under Section 2(76) of the Companies Act, 2013.

The database shall be updated whenever necessary and shall be reviewed at least once a year jointly by the Company Secretary, Compliance Officer and Chief Financial Officer.

- 5.7. The functional/business heads; Chief Financial Officer; Company Secretary shall have access to the updated database.

6. Review and Approval of Related Party Transactions

6.1. Audit Committee

- 6.1.1. All the transactions which are identified as RPTs should be pre-approved by the Audit Committee before entering into such transaction whether at a meeting or by resolution by circulation or through electronic mode. The Audit Committee shall consider all relevant factors while deliberating on the RPTs for its approval.

Provided that the above provisions shall not apply to a transaction, other than for the transaction referred to in Section 188 of the Act, between the Company and the Holding Company.

- 6.1.2. Any member of the Committee who has a potential interest in any related party transaction will recuse himself and abstain from discussion and shall not vote to approve the related party transaction. A related party transaction which is (i) not in the ordinary course of business, or (ii) not at arm's length price, would require approval of the Board of Directors or of shareholders as discussed subsequently.
- 6.1.3. The Audit Committee may grant omnibus approval for related party transactions which are repetitive in nature and subject to such criteria/conditions as mentioned under the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and such other conditions as it may consider necessary in line with this Policy and in the interest of the Company. Such omnibus approval shall be valid for a period not exceeding one year and shall require fresh approval after the expiry of one year. The omnibus approval shall specify:

- (i) The name(s) of the related party, nature of transaction, period of transaction, maximum amount of transactions that shall be entered into; and
- (ii) The indicative base price / current contracted price and the formula for variation in the price if any.
- (iii) Such other conditions as the audit committee may deem fit:

Omnibus approval shall not be made for transactions in respect of selling or disposing of the undertaking of the company.

6.1.4. Audit Committee shall review, on a quarterly basis, the details of related party transactions entered into by the Company pursuant to the omnibus approval.

6.1.5. RPTs entered into by the Company, which is not under the omnibus approval or otherwise pre-approved by the Committee, will be placed before the Committee for ratification in accordance with the provisions of Section 177 of the Act.

6.1.6. Subject to the applicable laws, the Audit Committee shall have the power to ratify, revise or terminate the RPTs, which are not in accordance with this Policy.

6.2. Board of Directors

6.2.1. In case any RPTs are referred by the Company to the Board for its approval due to the transaction being (i) not in the ordinary course of business, or (ii) not at an arm's length price, such transactions shall be affected only with prior approval of the Board of Directors of the Company, on recommendation of Audit Committee.

6.2.2. The Board will consider such factors as, nature of the transaction, material terms, the manner of determining the pricing and the business rationale for entering into such transaction. On such consideration, the Board may approve the transaction or may require such modifications to transaction terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances.

- 6.2.3. Any member of the Board who has any interest in any related party transaction will recuse himself and abstain from discussion and shall not vote to approve the related party transaction.

6.3. Shareholders

If a related party transaction is not in the ordinary course of business, or not at arm's length price and is a Material Related Party Transaction, it shall require shareholders' approval by a resolution.

6.4. Reporting of RPTs

- 6.4.1. Every contract or arrangement, which is required to be approved by the Board/shareholders under this Policy, shall be referred to in the Board's report to the shareholders along with the justification for entering into such contract or arrangement.

6.5. RPTs not previously approved

- 6.5.1. In the event the Company becomes aware of a RPT that has not been approved or ratified under this Policy, the transaction shall be placed as promptly as practicable before the Committee or Board or the Shareholders as may be required in accordance with this Policy and in compliance with the applicable laws and regulations as may be amended from time to time.
- 6.5.2. The Committee or the Board or the Shareholders shall consider all relevant facts and circumstances respecting such transaction and shall evaluate all options available to the Company, including but not limited to ratification, revision, or termination of such transaction, and the Company shall take such action as the Committee or the Board or the Shareholders (as the case may be) deem appropriate under the circumstances.

7. Effective Date

This policy was first approved by the Board of Directors on 3rd April 2018 and has been amended by the Board of Directors on 20th June 2019 and 20th August 2020 and shall come into force with immediate effect.

8. Disclosure

Adequate disclosures pertaining to this Policy shall be made in the Annual Report as a part of Director's Report and on the website of the Company as required. Details of RPT and Related Parties should be recorded in MBP-4 Part A and Part B respectively.

9. Limitation and Amendments

- 9.1. The Policy is subject to review from time to time and at least once in every three years.
- 9.2. The Board of Directors may in their discretion and on recommendation of the Audit Committee, make any changes/modifications and/or amendments to this Policy from time to time.
- 9.3. In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Policy and of the Act or any other statutory enactments, rules, the provisions of such Act or statutory enactments, rules shall prevail over and automatically be applicable to this Policy and the relevant provisions of the Policy would be amended/modified in due course to make it consistent with the law.
